Supervisory Board

§ 17

- I. The Supervisory Board consists of at least five members, appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting for a joint term of office of three years, counted in full financial years. Outgoing Members of the Supervisory Board may be re-elected, but the appointment may take place no earlier than one year before the expiry of the current term of office of the Member of the Supervisory Board. The number of members of the Supervisory Board is determined each time by the General Meeting.

- II. Individual members of the Supervisory Board may be dismissed at any time in accordance with the procedure provided for their appointment.
- III. During the first meeting, the Supervisory Board elects from among its members the Chairman and Secretary of the Supervisory Board. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened and canceled by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and, in his stead, by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board. In the event of a vacancy in the functions of the Chairman and Secretary of the Supervisory Board, each member of the Supervisory Board may convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board independently, specifying its date, place and proposed agenda.
- IV. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are chaired by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and, in his stead, by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board. If the Chairman or Secretary of the Supervisory Board is unable to conduct a meeting of the Supervisory Board, the meeting of the Supervisory Board is chaired by a member of the Supervisory Board selected from among those present.
- V. A meeting of the Supervisory Board is convened by invitation, containing the date, time and place of the meeting and the proposed agenda, as well as the method of using means of direct remote communication during the meeting. Notices of convening a meeting are sent to the Members of the Supervisory Board by registered mail, courier, e-mail or SMS, or sent with confirmation, at least 7 days before the date of the meeting. In emergency cases, the Chairman or Secretary of the Supervisory Board may order a different method and date of notifying Members of the Supervisory Board about the date of the meeting.
- VI. The Supervisory Board:
 1. adopts resolutions, provided that at least half of its Members are present at the meeting and all its Members have been invited. Participation in the meeting is also possible using means of direct remote communication
 2. adopts resolutions by an absolute majority of votes. In the event of an equal number of votes, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board has the casting vote;

3. may adopt resolutions at meetings of the Supervisory Board also on matters not included in the proposed agenda, if none of the Members of the Supervisory Board participating in the meeting objects to it;
 4. may also hold meetings without being formally convened, provided that all Members of the Supervisory Board consent to it and do not object to the inclusion of particular matters on the agenda.
- VII. It is allowed for the Supervisory Board to adopt resolutions in writing and using means of direct remote communication. Resolutions are valid when all members of the Supervisory Board have been notified of the content of the draft resolution and at least half of the members of the Supervisory Board took part in adopting the resolution.
- VIII. Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in adopting resolutions of the Supervisory Board by casting their votes in writing through another Member of the Supervisory Board, except for matters introduced to the agenda at the meeting of the Supervisory Board.
- IX. Voting on resolutions of the Supervisory Board takes place in an open manner, however, in justified cases, including in the case of resolutions concerning personal matters, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board may order a secret ballot.
- X. In order to perform its duties, the Supervisory Board may examine all the Company's documents, review the Company's assets and request the Management Board, proxies and persons employed in the Company under an employment contract or performing specific activities for the Company on a regular basis under a contract for specific work, a contract of mandate or another contract of a similar nature to prepare or provide any information, documents, reports or explanations regarding the Company, in particular its activities or assets. The object of the request may also be held by authority or obligated person information, reports or explanations regarding subsidiaries and related companies. Information, documents, reports or explanations are provided to the Supervisory Board immediately, not later than within two weeks from the date of submitting the request to the body or person obliged, unless a longer period is specified in the request. The Management Board may not limit the access of the Members of the Supervisory Board to the information, documents, reports or explanations referred to in Point X of the Articles of Association.

- XI. The Supervisory Board shall appoint an Audit Committee from among its members, as a consultative and advisory body, when the prerequisites indicated in the Act on Statutory Auditors, Audit Firms and Public Supervision of 11 May 2017 are met.
- XII. The Supervisory Board may also create other committees or teams from among the Members of the Supervisory Board or delegate a Member of the Supervisory Board to independently perform certain supervisory activities.
- XIII. The Supervisory Board shall exercise constant supervision over the Company's activities, in all areas of its operations. The specific duties of the Supervisory Board include:
 1. assessment of the Management Board's report on the Company's activities and financial statements for the previous financial year, assessment of the Management Board's proposals regarding the distribution of profit or coverage of losses,
 2. assessment of the consolidated financial statements of the TORPOL Capital Group and the Management Board's report on the activities of the TORPOL Capital Group,
